Mission of the American Red Cross

The American Red Cross is a humanitarian organization dedicated to serving families and communities. This is attained through blood services, providing disaster relief and preparedness education, serving members of the military and their families, and providing training in first aid, CPR, swimming, water safety, youth programs and HIV/AIDS education.

Blood Services

Local hospitals depend on the Red Cross to satisfy their need for a safe and adequate supply of blood.

Aquatics

In the land of 10,000 lakes, water safety, including swimming lessons and lifeguard training, is a priority.

Health and Safety Services

The Red Cross provides the latest lifesaving techniques in first aid, CPR & AED training.

Youth Programs

Teaching the youth of our community life-long skills in first aid and babysitter's training.

Disaster Services

The Red Cross provides food, clothing, shelter, and medical assistance immediately after a disaster.

Military

Communications
Keeping members of the armed forces in touch with their family at home through our world-wide communications system.
